

SPONSORS

View Sponsor Websites, Emails

KEY INFORMATION

Get answers about Health Insurance Marketplace at www.healthcare.gov today!

ON TWITTER

Tweets

2-1-1 Brevard @211Brevard 19h
Free training in QPR (Question, Persuade, Refer) for #suicideprevention, 8/5 @ParrishMed Register at #centralfloridacares.org/events #dial211
Expand

2-1-1 Brevard @211Brevard 19h
Welcome to new followers @CBLobsterShanty

Tweet to @211Brevard

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

Add Your Event

View Calendar

Winners named for 2-1-1 Brevard's Stars of Space Coast Awards

Winners were announced Friday (May 1) for the Health First Stars of the Space Coast Awards, presented by 2-1-1 Brevard to recognize the "stellar" work of local nonprofits. They are:

- Brevard Schools Foundation for the Health First Supernova Award, recognizing a nonprofit for magnifying impact.
- Brevard Achievement Center for the Central Florida Hand Center Lodestar Award, recognizing a nonprofit board for leadership.
- Susan Thomas of Rolling Readers for the All Pro Garage Doors Superstar Award, recognizing an employee of a nonprofit for exceptional work.
- And Nana's House for the Grimaldi Candies Community Star Award, which was determined by online voting.

Bill Calhoun, president of community hospitals for Health First, presented the Health First Supernova Award to Brevard Schools Foundation, which was represented by Janice Kershaw and Elizabeth Schreiber.

Lodestar: Greg Smith, 2-1-1 Brevard board president and director of business development for Parrish Medical Center, presented the Central Florida Hand Center Lodestar Award to the board of Brevard Achievement Center, which was represented by Steve Kenyon and Amar Patel.

Suzanne Sparling, 2-1-1 Brevard board member and executive director of College-Wide Communications for Eastern Florida State College, presented the All Pro Garage Doors Superstar Award to Susan Thomas of Rolling Readers.

More photos are posted on the 2-1-1 Brevard Facebook page.

"Our mission is to provide intervention and resources to our callers, which we couldn't do without the many health and human services organizations in the community," said Libby

Bob Garbordi, executive editor at Florida Today, presented the Grimaldi Candies Community Star Award to Nana's House, represented by Kim Frodge.

Donoghue, 2-1-1 Brevard executive director.

"It seemed appropriate to us to develop an event that generated awareness and financial support for our mission critical partners, as well as for 2-1-1 Brevard."

Other award nominees were:

- Central Brevard Sharing Center and The Haven for Children for the Health First Supernova Award.
- Housing for Homeless for the Central Florida Hand Center Lodestar Award.
- Linda Ahearn of Catholic Charities and Patricia Nellius of Brevard Family Partnership for the All Pro Garage Doors Superstar Award.
- Brevard Achievement Center and Family Promise of Brevard for the Grimaldi Candies Community Star Award.

The event was held at Exploration Tower at Port Canaveral. The master of ceremonies was Greg Pallone of Bright House Central Florida News 13.

Media sponsors were News 13, Florida Today and SCB Marketing. Other sponsors were Florida Power & Light Co., Joyce and Larry Boudrie, and attorney Maria Riddle.

In-kind sponsors were Fishlips Waterfront Bar & Grill and Rusty's Seafood and Oyster Bar.